ELKS DOUBLE-HEADER OUTING

Two River Excursions Well Attended and Charity Fund Will Profit Accordingly.

than five thousand tickets were sold, netting more than $2,000.

The Provider or made its first trip from the local landing at 2 p. m. The afternoon excursion was given for the accommodation and entertainment of the Elks little ones, and several hundred children and their mannas enjoyed the outing. No stop was made. The steamer went down the river fifteen miles, and returned to the wharf at 5 p. m.

The second excursion was more largely attended than the first. When the steamer departed at 5 p. m. she was heavily laden with the happy Elks, their wifes, mothers, sisters and sweethearts. The social easien was presided over by Exalted Ruler A. M. Baker. He elicited much applause and laughter in imposing fires and interrogating members as to the "whys and wherefores" of such and such a charge, of which they were judged "guilty." Supper was served abourd the steamer. Pancing was also a feature of entertainment.

The Entertainment Committee, to the members of which is due the success of the entertainment.

Those in charge of serving refreshments at the annual picule and lawn party of Annunciation Parish to-morrow at Riverside Park, No. 420 South Broadway, will be as follows: Supper-Mrs. Edward Cushing, Mrs. Mullaney, Mrs. John Connolly, Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. Thomas Daiton, Mrs. P. Seven Youngsters, Said to Be About 12 Years Old, Take Two Pocketknives and Two Dimes From Juvenile Victims.

Two packetknives and two dimes constitute the harvest reaged by seven boy highwaymen who held up and robbed Philip Robonovitz, B years old, of No. 1211 Biddle street, and Sammle Lambert. B years old, who lives at High and Carr streets.

The two victims visited Chief Kiely's office yesterday and related their thrilling experience with the handits. Lambert stated that he and his companion were on their way home, shortly after 9 o'clock Priday night, when, at Sixteenth and Biullanphy streets, seven boys apparently about 12 years old, each armed with rocks, commanded Lambert and Robonovitz to throw up their hands.

"Come clean and be quick about it," growled the leader of the band to Lambert.

The boy stated that he there we had

The boy stated that he threw up his hands, and six of the highwaymen searched his clothing, while the seventh member of the gang remained away about six feet, prepared to hit Lambert's head with a rock, in case he attempted to break with a rock, in case he attempted to break away.

When Lambert had been searched, he was ordered to seat himself on the sidewalk, while his companion was being searched. Robonosits's clothing was then searched. A knife yalued at about 30 cents, and a dime were taken. Lambert also lost a knife and 10 cents. After the seven youthful robbers had satisfied themselves that they had obtained all that was possible, they escaped in an alley.

The Fifth District Police have been searching the vicinity where the hold-up occurred, but as yet no trace 3f the bandits has been found.

DARK OUTLOOK FOR TRUANTS.

Police Instructed to Arrest Children Who Play "Hooky."

Boys who make a practice of playing "hooky" from school, when the session opens next Tuesday, will find with a vengence that "the way of the transgressor is hard."

The police will take a hand in the game this year and the bad boy had better beware. ware.

Matthew Kiely, Chief of Police, yesterday sent a pamplet to each of his Captains in the various districts calling their attention to the new truant law, which goes into effect next Tuesday. In his order, which accompanied the pamphlet, Chief Kiely said:

"Read the law carefully and instruct the members of your command to report all children on their respective beats who do not attend school and who are not exempt by reason of section No. 2, of this act, in order that they may be in turn reported to Attendance Officer John B. Quinn.

PROVES GREAT SUCCESS. FINED $500 FOR SHORTWEIGHT Driver Punished as His Employer

Was Last Tuesday. The two river excursions given yesterday on the steamer City of Providence, under the auspices of St. Louis Lodge, No. 28, P. O. E., were big social and financial successen. Two thousand 'Helio Billis' and their families made the trip and were highly entertained in the afternoon and at night. The social session, which was a feature of the night outing is said to have been one of the most enjoyable ever held by the Elks and brought forth much merriment.

The excursions were conducted for the benefit of the Elks charity fund. More than five thousand tickets were sold, netting more than $2,000.

The Providence made its first trip from Johnson, inspector for the Correct Weight Coal Association, followed the men from the scale where the coal was weighed to Beckett's house. Gallagher stated that he got possession of the tickets on which the coal was soid, and the tickets which were issued when the coal was weighed. He said that the tickets which were given to Beckett called for 3% hushels more of coal than the regular tickets indicated. Gallagher is detailed to watch coal drivers to prevent the delivery of short-weight coal.

ARREST DRUG STORE BURGLAR.

Emmet Everson Confesses to Rob "whys and wherefores" of such and such a charge, of which they were judged guilty." Supper was served aboard the steamer. Denoting was also a feature of entertainment.

The Entertainment Committee, to the teeminers of which is due the success of the excursions was composed of Fred B. Murphy, O. F. Sessinghaus, Dewey Hickey and E. M. Bredaski.

The money realized from the excursions will be used in distributing the annual Christmas offerings among the poor. The Elks, following their annual custom in the past, are already making preparations for carrying out the work. They hope to thist many hourse during the coming holidays and make special efforts to make glad the hearts of the orphans and homelast the hearts of the orphans and homelast in charge of serving refreshments at the annual picnic and lawn party of Annuaciation Parish to-morrow at Riverside Park No. 420 South Broadway will be as follows: Supper-Min.
